Dear Sir,

Mr. Fraley called in to see me while I was attending the State Bar Association and before the first of the month. He also called in again this morning, immediately upon my return. He says his clients have had analyzed the contents of the bottle and found it to be exactly the same as other bottles. They think the blame rests in the way the thing was done, but they say that as a matter of compromise and for that purpose only and not to be used in any other respect, they will agree to pay your physician's and attorney's bills. Kindly let me hear from you.

Yours respectfully,

Alex Simpson Jr
